Mr. Taylor has the sympathy of his many friends in these hours of sore trials and disappointments.

The Ohio Circuit Court is becoming attractive to the leading lawyers of the State. They come constantly to the county when important cases are on docket, and of late we have many of them. The visiting attorneys attending the present term are Messrs. R. A. Miller, Capt. W. T. Ellis, T. P. Birkhead and Judge C. W. Massey, Owensboro, Judge J. C. Johnson, Greenville, John J. McHenry, Louisville, S. P. Roby, Fordville, Col. G. M. Barnett, Louisville, is also in attendance at court.

Last week while in Owensboro on a business mission, Mr. Jas B. Her was greatly surprised to hear that Mr. Mac Warner had accused him of stealing $40 of his money and had sworn out a writ for him, and placed it in the hands of a policeman who served it on him. Mr. Her appeared before the court before noon and was permitted to go unmolested and without bond with a request that he appear again at 1 p. m. when his case was dismissed. It was reported that Mr. Her was confined in jail, but this is untrue. No man is more innocent of this charge than Jim Her. He is a man whose life and character are above reproach.

There has been much said about the blind animal that appeared on the streets of Hartford Monday, on wheels, and much will be said later, when he is brought before the grand jury. And yet there are animals not on wheels, but on legs, not far away that are rarely ever mentioned. They are of a more docile nature than those that roll from place to place. These things are all sure to pass and one is as bad as the other. They should all be destroyed from the face of the earth. While we abuse those on wheels, let's not forget those on legs. They were all on rollers as might get rid of them at some future time.

J. L. ELMORE

Passes Quietly From Life to Eternity at the Home of His Father, at Westford.

Thursday evening week the friends of education, and especially the teachers, were greatly grieved to learn of the death of Prof. J. L. Elmore, for a long while a prominent and successful teacher, whose genial and happy spirit won the love and admiration of those with whom he came in contact. Only a short time ago his happy and cheerful companion was laid to rest in the bosom of the cold earth by whose side friends have placed his lifeless form. How unfortunate it seems to man, that young men, thoroughly prepared and equipped for the duties of life, should be called to quit the pleasures of this world in the heyday of their existence. This is an uncertain life. The well of to-day may be the sick of to-morrow. Prof. Elmore leaves one little child, his parents and a host of friends to mourn his eternal absence. He graduated from Hartford College in 1892 with the degree of B. S. Entering again the following year and pursuing his work diligently he carried with him at the close of the year the degree of Bachelor of Philosophy. Since the day of his graduation he has devoted himself to the profession of teaching. His work as a teacher has been thoroughly satisfactory to patrons and pupils. He was always at his post of duty. In class room, he was kind and attentive, and his daily walk in life was marked by deeds of kindness to all with whom he came in contact. He was a faithful and devout Christian, ever ready to assist his church in its work. His many friends everywhere will feel the great loss they have sustained, and the profession, which he graced, upon learning the sad news of his untimely death. In the death of Lemuel Elmore, THE REPUBLICAN feels the loss of one of its ardent and faithful supporters.

SUNNY DALE, KY.

What shall we do with our nations greatest foe? Shall we delay doing the right thing about it as some contend until we find a substitute for it? Of all propositions that is the most childish. A substitute for the saloon. A substitute for the gambling hell. You might as well close up the church until you can find a substitute for the devil. The only substitute for salver is liberty, the only substitute for sickness is health, the only substitute for wrong is right, the only substitute for the saloon is—no saloon. Give the homes of our fair land a chance, and we shall not need a substitute for the saloon, the nation's greatest foe. Shall we regulate it? Shall we say: "You may keep on all the week, but you must close on Sunday. You must not sell to an Indian, but you can debauch our white men. You must not sell to a man that's drunk, but you can intoxicate a man that's sober." The biggest farce outside of perdition is the laws on the statute books of America that were passed to regulate the saloon. You might as well try to regulate consumption by a tax on microbes. Under such laws a mother's boy is not safe until he gets into a penitentiary. Regulation will plant a saloon opposite the factory, on every corner of Main street, and next door to a boy's home, burn out his manhood, school him in crime and send him to State prison.

KEEN EDITORIAL CRITICISM.

Great Democratic Paper Calls Him "Most Shameless of Carpet-Baggers."

The Washington Post, Democratic in dependent, but which has been advocating Blackbarn and the regular ticket in Kentucky, says under the caption of "The Infamy in Kentucky:" "It begins to appear that the Kentucky campaign, which opened with the infamous nomination of Goebel by the Democrats, is destined to close with the even deeper infamy of Goebel's election by fraud. The Louisville Courier-Journal, which has become the exponent, is not the authorized organ, of Goebellism and its methods, is now telling us under triumphant headlines and with honest pride how the pure minded Democratic official throughout the State are steadily robbing Taylor of his vote, and as steadily overcoming by the foul and most insolent expedients the Republicans' legitimate majority. What was begun upon the scale of political infamy—the theft of isolated ballot boxes and snail the disqualification of small groups of voters here and there—has reached the proportions of wholesale plunder and spoliation.

"The Goebel officials have boldly abandoned the furtive, piecemeal system, and are now stealing by counties instead of by precincts. The most voracious and arrogant carpet bagger that went South in the reconstruction times to ravage States and lost their treasuries would turn in his grave today—turn with envy and regret—if he could know what a bungling journeyman he was compared with Kentucky adept.

"We risk nothing in the assertion that in the history of American elections there has been no spectacle more disgraceful and abhorrent than that now presented by the Kentucky Democracy. That the Republican candidate has been elected by a clear majority is beyond all question. That the election officials, aided by Democratic courts, are gradually but surely extinguishing this majority is patent to the dullest understanding. It is a spectacle fraught with humiliation and shame, and what makes it especially odious in the eyes of decent men is the fact that Goebel, who devised the machinery of fraud, is to be the beneficiary of the operation.

"The disgust and anger generated by these proceedings include the entire country. Honorable Democrats—honest men—all who care for justice, honor and self-respect—resent, denounce and brand them. It is a safe prediction that the Democratic party, not only in Kentucky, but in the nation at large, will not be the victim of such a victory of villainy. The installation of Goebel through the deplorable methods we have described will give Kentucky to the Republican party for years to come. No honorable man can possible condone those methods or permit himself to be identified with them. The struggle is no longer between Republicanism and Democracy. It is between righteousness and crime."

"He plays well that wins." Hood's Sarsaparilla wins the victory over disease because it possesses genuine curative power.

Watterson on Goebellism.

Mr. Henry Watterson devoted two and a half columns of the Courier-Journal's editorial space Sunday to an attempt to set himself and the paper square with the world on the Goebel question. The article is, however, a begging of the question. Neither its labored length nor its sophistry can overcome the facts that Mr. Watterson and the Courier-Journal opposed the passage of the Goebel law, because of its patent iniquity and dangerous possibilities, and that both Watterson and the Courier-Journal were professedly opposed to every principle in the Goebellism platform. The paper's present position is in this instance painfully anomalous, and no sophistry that Mr. Watterson may employ, however pleasingly expressed, can disguise the fact that the Courier-Journal is now lending itself to the uses of a machine and sacrificing all other considerations for the sake of placing a certain man in office.

It is well remembered in Tennessee that Mr. Watterson and the Courier-Journal opposed the counting out of Clay Evans in this State. What Mr. Watterson had to say in regard to that contest might be quoted against him very forcibly now. The Kentucky case is even a more flagrant one than that of Tennessee. The personal bitterness was not so intensified in Tennessee as it is in Kentucky, but everything that was objectionable in the Tennessee contest is apparent in Kentucky, with Goebellism added. Mr. Watterson and the Courier-Journal, in the defense of Goebellism, can not as much as plead the poor excuse of fealty to party. They have not hesitated in elections much more important, so far as the party was concerned, to bolt both the ticket and the platform.

There are few people who will believe that Mr. Watterson has any heart in his present position. He has yielded to the force of circumstances he could not control, and the sophistry and hollow rhetoric with which he seeks to cover his lack of conviction betray a painful disavowal for the work. Mr. Watterson is not a good actor—Nashville Banner.

CRAZY NEGRO YOUTH

Chops His Aged Father To Death With a Hatchet at Owensboro, Ky.

Owensboro, Ky., Nov. 21.—John Barnett, a well respected and colored man of this city, was brutally murdered this morning by his son, Cicero Barnett. The deed was committed with a hatchet, and the old man's head was literally chopped to pieces. The murdered man was seventy years old and the murderer is twenty. Cicero Barnett has served a term of three years in the Kentucky penitentiary for shooting another negro named Pete Sowder, and has not been long out of prison. The physicians have examined Barnett and they pronounce him crazy. He will be tried to-morrow morning on a writ of lunacy.

This old gentleman belonged to Mr. Morris H. Barnett, during the days of slavery. Many people near Hartford knew him and will learn of his death with expressions of regret.

Counting Out in Kentucky.

It is a sorry political spectacle that is going on in Kentucky. The qualified voters of the State have met and elected a Governor. A majority of the votes is unquestionably registered for one of the candidates. But an election law contrived in the interest of a party is now applied to alter the returns sufficiently to give the certificate of election to the candidate who received the fewest votes. The plot stands forth in full view and its details naturally interest the whole county. A majority for Taylor, the Republican candidate, is in the ballot boxes beyond denial, though the Goebel Democrats were in control of the election machinery of the State, the counties and the precincts. The extent to which this worked to the disadvantage of the Republican candidate, by obstruction and otherwise, can never be known. In spite of the Goebel election boards, supreme everywhere in the precincts, the returns give a majority of several thousand for Taylor. As the Goebel law failed to prevent the election at the polls to the extent desired its other provisions are brought into play to falsify the count.

Several counties must be thrown out bodily to effect this result. In Nelson county the name of Taylor was correctly spelled on the tickets, but the County Clerk, a Goebellite, had certificates printed in which Taylor's middle initial was erroneous. This misprint, due to a County Clerk devoted to the candidate who is to be the beneficiary of the error, is relied on to get rid of 1198 votes. In Knox county it is proposed to throw out a Taylor majority of 1730 because it is alleged the ballots were too thin. In Lewis county there is a Taylor majority of 704, but the election officers, without giving reasons, refuse to certify the returns. Even these changes would not secure a Goebel majority, so other counties are held in reserve for whatever further manipulation may be needed. Goebel claims his election by a daily telegram, though the figures have been plainly against him from the first. He is consistent in one respect. His election law was conceived and pushed through the Legislature to insure his faction against the loss of any election. After inventing a sure thing game he simply takes the next step in applying it.

It is perfectly well known to every intelligent man in the United States that the larger number of the votes cast in Kentucky are for Taylor. Public opinion on the subject at this stage is divided between those who want fair elections and those who want elections under the control of one party and of counting in its candidates if they should fail at the ballot box. Goebellism divided the Democratic party in Kentucky before the election. Its high handed cheating now will alienate many thousands more. Free government will be a farce if the methods of Goebel prevail. The sovereign rights of Kentuckians will be trampled under foot for the first time in the history of the State. A so called Governor will install himself at the capital in spite of the fact that another man received a large number of votes. Such an outcome will not be credited until the mass of Kentuckians, thus disgraced, submit to this portentous surrender of the primary rights of American citizenship—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Without Moral Sense.

The Louisville Courier-Journal's pluralities for Goebel have been gradually dwindling until they have disappeared altogether. When the plurality got down to one vote it was easy to see that it could not stand out long. That paper on Saturday prepared another table which showed a plurality of 261 for Taylor, but this table is in many respects the most complete compilation of figures we have ever seen. In the first place, Jefferson county, in which the city of Louisville is situated, is left out, and Goebel is given the 1,198 votes in Nelson county which were actually cast for W. T. Taylor, but which were mistakenly certified to have been cast for W. T. Taylor. Of course, any person with a grain of intelligence or the tiniest sense of fair play would know that a candidate could not lose these votes simply because there was a typographical error in the printing, not the ballots, but of the certificates. Suppose that these 1,198 had been cast for Taylor, but the officers of election had certified that they were cast for Bill Jones, would anybody say that they should be lost because they were certified to the wrong man? If so, the officers of election in Kentucky who were favorable to Goebel made a great mistake in not certifying Taylor's vote to Goebel and being done with it. With the 1,198 voted properly credited to Taylor, he has, according to the Courier-Journal's figures, a plurality of 771 instead of 261, and when Jefferson county is added it will run his plurality up to 3,500. Goebel's only chance of election is to throw out the entire vote of Louisville, where the militia were used, not to intimidate voters, but merely to see that the inspectors of election were allowed to watch the proceedings and observe the count. If Goebel had any of the instincts of a man of honor he would scorn to accept an office by throwing out votes which he knows were properly last for his opponent, and if Watterson had not lost all sense of shame he would have urged through the Courier Journal an acceptance of the result. The trouble with Watterson, however, is that he is a man utterly without the moral sense. He sleeps well not because he has an easy conscience, but because he has no conscience. In the emergency confronting the Democracy of Kentucky if he were possessed of a genuine manhood, he would rise to the occasion and deliver a ringing appeal to the Democrats to accept the result, erase the stain of Goebellism from the party's habiliments and unite for 1900. With Goebel eliminated and forgotten, the Kentucky Democracy can easily win in the next election. And the sooner the dead cat of Goebellism is buried the better it will be for all hands.—Memphis Commercial-Appeal.

COURT NOTES.

The November term of the Ohio Circuit Court convened Monday with Judge W. T. Owen on the bench and Commonwealth's Attorney J. E. Rowe present to forward the cause of justice and to punish the violators and transgressors of the law. Up to the present no jury has been in the jury box. The case of the Com'th. vs. Cicero King has consumed much time and as yet the court has failed to get a jury suitable for the attorneys on both sides, and perhaps will be most of today. The Commonwealth in this case will be represented by Com'th. Atty. J. E. Rowe and County Atty. M. L. Heavrin. The counsel for the defendant are Messrs. R. A. Miller and W. T. Ellis. This will doubtless be one of the most interesting cases ever tried at the Hartford bar. These attorneys are men of experience and ability and will measure their lengths in this case. It will consume most of this term of court.

The following gentlemen compose the grand jury for the present term: L. B. Loney, foreman; H. A. Baird, sheriff; J. C. Leach, Jas. Wedding, W. W. Loyd, W. T. Howell, J. R. Hunter, Tice Baker, Eldy Ward, Clem Maples, Chas. Baxley and Luther Render. The petit jury is as follows: W. T. Bean, G. W. Snell, C. R. Campbell, Jas. M. McIntyre, Amos Stewart, L. G. Weller, W. B. Ambros, J. W. Turner, J. P. Gilmore, W. M. Indson, John H. Davis, W. P. Swell, C. C. Taylor, W. P. Metcalf, R. V. Wells, S. S. Acton, W. H. Duke and Ira Bartlett.

HOME CURE FOR BLOOD POISON.

Beware of the Doctors' Patchwork; You Can Cure Yourself at Home.

There is not the slightest doubt that the doctors do more harm than good in treating Contagious Blood Poison; many victims of this loathsome disease would be much better off to-day if they had never allowed themselves to be dosed on mercury and potash, the only remedies which the doctors ever give for blood poison.

The doctors are wholly unable to get rid of the disease, and only attempt to head up the outward appearance of the system, and endeavor to keep it shut in with their constant doses of potash and mercury. The mouth and throat and other delicate parts then break out into sores, and the fight is continued indefinitely, the drugs doing the system more damage than the disease itself.

Mr. H. L. Myers, 100 Mulberry St., Newark, N. J., says: "I had spent a hundred dollars with the doctors, when I realized that they could do me no good. I had large spots all over my body, and these soon broke out into running sores, and I endured all the suffering which this vile disease produces. I decided to try S. S. S. as a last resort, and was soon greatly improved. I followed closely your 'Directions for Self Treatment,' and the large spots on my chest began to grow paler and smaller, and before long disappeared entirely. I was soon cured perfectly, and my skin has been as clear as glass ever since. I cured myself at home, after the doctors had failed completely."

It is valuable time thrown away to expect the doctors to cure Contagious Blood Poison, for the disease is beyond their skill. Swift's Specific.

S. S. S. FOR THE BLOOD

acts in an entirely different way from potash and mercury—it forces the poison out of the system and gets rid of it entirely. Hence it cures the disease, while the other remedies only keep the poison in where it lurks forever, constantly undermining the constitution. Our system of private home treatment places a cure within the reach of all. We give all necessary medical advice, free of charge, and save the patient the embarrassment of publicity. ## C. J. RHODES

Hartford, Ky.,

Has opened up a General Store, the only one in town. Call and examine my goods and get prices before buying elsewhere. It will be to your interest to do so. This town goes without saying, with the country people, to be the highest town in the county.

But he that Says so, As long as I am in business here, will misrepresent the town.

By the help of the people I expect to sell goods as cheap as the cheapest. Country produce taken at the highest market price in exchange for goods.

The State tax commission has been in receipt of numerous literary curiosities since it went into office, but none of them can come up to the following which is to be preserved among the archives of the State:

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four Doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined I could out stay with my friends on earth. I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God, I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at J. H. Williams' Drug Store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refunded.

The attempt on the part of certain Democratic newspapers to get a Tariff fight onto the bills for 1900 will fail. The country has seen and heard enough of "Tariff Reform" since the experience with the Wilson law. Anti expansion seems to be the only issue left to them, and that is not a popular one.—Port Huron (Mich.) "Times."

Spain's Greatest Need.

Mr. R. P. Oliva, of Barcelona, Spain, spends his winters at Aiken, S. C. Weak nerves had caused severe pains in the back of his head. On using Electric Bitters, America's greatest Blood and Nerve Remedy, all pain soon left him. He says this grand medicine is what his country needs. All America knows that it cures liver and kidney trouble, purifies the blood, tones up the stomach, strengthens the nerves, puts vim, vigor and new life into every muscle, nerve and organ of the body. If weak, tired or ailing you need it. Every bottle guaranteed, only 50 cents. Sold by J. H. Williams, Druggist.

It is evident that William Jennings Bryan knows prosperity when he means it. He has stopped making calamity and hard times speeches and is trying to lool the people now on an entirely different line.—Indianapolis "Journal."

There are fine large layers of prosperity fat on the American Thanksgiving turkey this year. The noble bird was never worthier of his destiny than he is this season.—New York "Mail and Express."

Used by British Soldiers in Africa.

Capt. C. G. Dennison is well known all over Africa as a commander of the forces that captured the famous rebel Gallahe. Under date of Nov. 4, 1897, from Vuyburg, Bechuanaland, he writes: "Before starting on the last campaign I bought a quantity of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I used myself when troubled with bowel complaint, and had given to my men, and in every case it proved most beneficial." It Burns Easily.

There is a great difference in the way fuel is burned. Put a great stick in the stove and then a similar piece after the sap or water has been evaporated from it. Of course you know one burns much more readily than the other. It is just so with the fuel which we take into the body in the form of food. Oil knows fats and oils, cod liver oil heads the list in the ease with which it is oxidized or burned up. In Scott's Emulsion you get this food free from disagreeable odor and taste. All delicate children should take it, for it gives them rich blood, strong muscles and keeps them plump and hearty.

No-To-take for Fifty Cents.

Guaranteed tobacco habit cure, makes weak men strong, blood pure. 50c. All druggists.

An Extraordinary Chance

For a Bright Man to Secure a Steady Position the Year Around in Hartford and Vicinity.

Dear Editor—We want a clothing salesman to take orders for men's custom-made-to-measure suits, pants, overcoats and rubbers in Hartford and adjoining towns and country. Any good, bright man, especially if he has experience as a salesman in a store, agricultural implement house or where he has come in contact with people, as solicitor for tailoring, insurance, nursery stock or other goods can make big money with our line the year around; but any good, bright man, even without previous experience, can make $150.00 a month and expenses with the big outfit we furnish him and the opportunity we give him if he will devote his time to the work; or, if we can get a good man in Hartford whose time is partly taken up with other work and who can devote his spare time to our line, even if only an hour or so a day, he will be exceedingly well with our agency. We have men in real estate, loaning, lumber, grain, railroad, express, and other business who give their spare time to our line with big results. No experience is absolutely necessary, no capital required. We furnish a complete line of cloth samples and stationery; have no commission plan, no house-to-house canvases, no ratchety conditions, but offer a rare opportunity for some man in vicinity to secure high grade employment at big wages.

We are the largest tailors in America. We make to measure over 300,000 suits annually. We occupy entire one of the largest business blocks in Chicago. We refer to the Corn Exchange National Bank in Chicago, any express or railroad company in Chicago or any resident of this city. We buy our cloth direct from the largest European and American mills we operate the most extensive and economic custom tailoring plant in existence, and we reduce the price of made-to-measure suits and overcoats to from $5.00 to $15.00—mostly $5.00 to $10.00—prices so low that nearly everybody will be glad to have their garments made-to-measure, and will give our agent their orders.

We will furnish a good agent a large and handsomely bound book containing large cloth samples of our entire line of suits, pants, overcoats, etc., a book which costs us several dollars; also fine colored fashion plates, tape measure, business cards, stationery, advertising matter and a rubber stamp with name and address and pad complete, also an instruction book, which makes it easy for anyone to take orders and conduct a profitable business. We will also furnish net confidential price list. Agent can take orders and send them to us and we will make the garments within five days and send direct to agent's customer by express C. O. D., subject to examination and approval, collect the agent's full selling price and every week we will send the agent our check for all his profit. The agent need collect no money and deliver no goods, simply go on taking orders at a liberal profit. We deliver the goods and collect all the money and every week promptly send him in one round check his full profit for the week, and nearly all our agents get a check from us of at least $40.00 every week of the year.

We will make no charge for the book and complete outfit, but, as the outfit costs us several dollars, it is necessary to protect ourselves against anyone who would impose upon us by sending for the outfit with no intention of working, but merely out of idle curiosity, therefore, we will ask as a guarantee of good faith on the part of the reader who decides to take up this work, that he cut this article out and mail to us, with the understanding that the big book and complete outfit will be sent to him by express, he to pay the express agent $1.00 and express charges for the outfit, with the distinct understanding that we will refund the $1.00 as soon as his orders have amounted to $25, which amount of orders he can take the very first day.

Don't compare this with any catchy offers made to get your $1.00. The genuineness of our offer and our reliability are proven by the bank reference referred to above, or you can easily find out by writing to anyone in Chicago to call on us.

This is a rare chance for some man in Hartford or vicinity, to take up a work at once that with reasonable effort on his part is sure to net him from $5.00 to $10.00 a day from the start, and we trust that from among your many readers we will be able to get a few good representatives in Hartford and adjoining towns.

Cut this notice out and mail to the AMERICAN WOOLEN MILLS CO., West Side Enterprise Building, Chicago, Ill., and the book and agent's complete outfit will be sent to you at once, you to pay $1.00 and express charges when received, the $1.00 to be returned to you when your orders amount to $25.00.
